SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Four years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: KERSHON DAVIS
CASE NUMBER: 4:18-cr-00498 KGB

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: KERSHON DAVIS

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate, under the guidance and supervision of the probation office, in a substance abuse treatment program which may include drug and alcohol testing, outpatient counseling, and residential treatment. Further, he must abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of treatment. He shall pay for the cost of treatment at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. If he is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

The defendant must disclose his substance abuse history to prescribing physicians and allow the probation office to verify disclosure.

The defendant shall participate, under the guidance and supervision of the probation office, in a mental health treatment program. He shall pay for the cost of treatment at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. If he is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

Case No. 4:18-cr-00498 KGB

KERSHON DAVIS

DEFENDANT

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

It is hereby ordered that:

1. As the result of the July 18, 2019, guilty plea of defendant Kershon Davis, Mr. Davis shall forfeit to the United States, under 21 U.S.C. § 853(a)(2), the following property:

- A. One Anvil Arms AR 15 5.56/.223 caliber semi-automatic pistol, bearing serial number AA006143;
- B. One Browning Field Model 28, 12 gauge shotgun, bearing serial number 32260NW192; and
- C. One Ruger LC9, 9mm pistol, bearing serial number 451-76338.

(collectively “property subject to forfeiture”).

2. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General or a designee (collectively “Attorney General”) is authorized to seize the above-listed property and to conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating, or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3). Further, the Attorney General is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights.

3. The United States shall publish, in such a manner as the Attorney General may direct, notice of this Order and the United States’ intent to dispose of the property subject to forfeiture. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the property subject to forfeiture.

4. Any person, other than Mr. Davis, asserting a legal interest in the property subject to forfeiture may petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged interest in the property and for an amendment of this Order. See 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2); 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c). This petition must be filed within 30 days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier. 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2).

5. This Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to Mr. Davis at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(A). If no third party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2).

6. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the property subject to forfeiture shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the property subject to forfeiture, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the property subject to forfeiture, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

7. After the disposition of any motion filed under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

8. The United States shall have clear title to the property subject to forfeiture following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided for the filing of third party petitions.

9. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order and to amend it as necessary. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

It is so ordered this 24th day of January, 2020.
